

Healthy Klamath Meeting Agenda September 24, 2020

In attendance: Jennifer Little, Marc Kane, Anne Keyser, Glenn Gailis, Michelle Scott, Cally McCool, Casey Bennett, Dawn Merrigan, John Bellon, Jen Newton, Kendra Santiago, Kyle Chapman, Lynda Daniel, Maria Ramirez, Martha Decker-Hall, Renee Reichart, Sabrina Garcia, Susan Boldt, Taylor Hampton, Patty Card, Michael Donarski, Katherine Duarte, Kelsey Mueller, Christian Moller-Andersen, Renea Wood, Jessie Hecocta, Robyn Pfeifer, Danielle Walker, Rhonda Nyseth, Jessie DuBose, Ralph Eccles, Cord Van Riper, Merritt Driscoll

Agenda Item:	Notes:
CHIP Updates <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Food insecurity (Kelsey Mueller) • Suicide prevention (Patty Card) • TOTS (Infant mortality) (Jennifer Little) • Physical Wellbeing/Activity (Merritt Driscoll) • Housing (Maria Ramirez) • Oral health (Cord Van Riper) 	Year One CHIP workplans close September 30, 2020 with year 2 covering Oct 1, 2020 through September 30, 2020. Contact the leads below if you are interested in learning more about the Year 2 workplans! Year 1 Q3 and Q4 updates: Food Insecurity – KFOM sales increased, Local Food Guide is being developed, Grab and Go lunch program extended through December 31st. Contact Kelsey Mueller if interested in this workgroup at kelsey.mueller@healthyklamath.org Suicide Prevention – QPR and CONNECT trainings will be held virtually in September and going forward; You Matter to Klamath has two billboards in town promoting reduced stress and have had great feedback. Look for these on S 6th near Crater Lake intersection and N Hwy 97. Loss Packet was updated with new resources. Contact Patty Card (pcard@kbbh.org) if you are interested in learning more. Trends on Thriving (TOTS) – hired an intern to conduct a SWOT analysis and educational campaign for Safe Sleep; developed educational materials for safe sleep, smoking cessation for pregnant women and tips for healthy moms. Seeking funding for Cribs for Kids and DOSE program. Contact Jennifer Little at Jennifer.little@klamathcounty.org for more information. Physical Activity/Well-being – working with Healthy Klamath Connect and Klamath Tribes' Second Wind tobacco cessation program to increase participation in prevention programs; Moore Park Playground project will be delayed a year due to grant funding and local funding going towards more pressing issues, the new goal is to build the playground by Summer 2022. KTA has spearheaded the effort to build a pump track in Kit Carson Park. Velosolutions recently designed the track and now the committee is seeking grant funding for the project (See PowerPoint for full design); Safe Routes to School program hosted a Summer Camp hosted in August. A Trail Signage Plan was developed and published in early September that outlines the plan for trail signs throughout Klamath Falls. The Link River Trail will be the pilot project for the first signs. Contact Merritt for more information on this workgroup at merritt.driscoll@healthyklamath.org Housing – Implemented Healthy Klamath Connect which now includes 74 local housing related programs; created best practice guidelines regarding infrastructure through partnership with Deschutes County. Working with KCC to develop a CHW+ program; implemented Integrated Pest Management Program (bed bug treatment) and planned a community-wide clean-up which was delayed due to COVID-19. KCEDA, Klamath County, and Arctaris formalized a housing incentive fund and 3 new housing projects are set to break ground in the next year. Contact Maria Ramirez (maria@cascadecomp.com) for info. Oral Health – KBOHC developed new branding materials and worked with Public Health to develop educational brochures for a few target populations: patients with diabetes (and dentures) and pregnant women. Coalition partners fostered relationship with BestCare to introduce FLHW training to staff about oral health evaluations and to

	conduct evaluations at the treatment center. Continuing partnership with OIT and OHSU to promote training and community evaluations. Email klamathbasinohc@gmail.com for more information.
Cascade Health Alliance Diabetes Project Renee Reichart - CHA	Reviewed SDOH screening, furthering PRAPARE use in county with a small (29 member) pilot of patients with diabetes. Sent out 6600 surveys via text to CHA members. Stratifying risk by health factors, PRAPARE scores, healthcare system utilization, and outcomes in an effort to develop a model for increase outcomes and reduced spend over time for patients with diabetes. See attached slides for more information.
U-MATA Sabrina Garcia – TWC	Medication assisted recovery anonymous hosted at Red is the Road to Wellness. Not a twelve-step environment. Program is run by Transformations Wellness Center, contact Sabrina Garcia for more information – sabrina@transformwvc.org
Rural Health Network Development – Strategic Purpose and SWOT Analysis Cord Van Riper	Healthy Klamath was awarded a three-year grant aimed at further network development and implementation of a Spanish-speaking diabetes prevention program. HK is developing a five-year strategic plan and is asking HK partners for input on the Strategic Purpose and SWOT analysis. See attached slides for information.
Community Updates	Blue Zones Project/Healthy Klamath – Kendra Santiago- Ten Percent Happier: wellness app that is opening free access for frontline workers, including USPS, warehouse employees, teachers, healthcare, grocery and food delivery workers. OHA CBO grant: BZP was one local organizations to receive funding which is being used for a social media campaign, digital and print ads, shopping cart “ads” and a toolkit that can be found at http://www.healthyklamath.org/covidtoolkit Friends of the Children Scavenger Hunt 2020 – Anne Keyser – October 23rd through 30th: entry fee of $25 w/ some scholarships. Small family or workplace teams. Find more information on the Friends of the Children Facebook. Contact Anne at ddm@friendsklamath.org SouthCentral Early Learning Hub – Danielle Walker – enrollment for Preschool Promise (children 3 & 4 y.o.) whose family FPL is 200% or below. Enroll at: www.southcentralhubenrollment.com Sky Lakes Wellness Center is recruiting for their January DPP cohort. See www.preventdiabetes.skylakes.org for more information. Citizens for Safe Schools has their virtual fundraising event on Saturday, October 24th. Flyer and link to silent auction on Facebook Cascade Health Alliance is conducting a health equity assessment and development of equity plan. They are asking for input and feedback from the community, so please complete and share the survey: CHA Healthy Equity Survey Klamath Basin Senior Center newspaper open for flyers and information free of charge, published beginning of each month. Contact Marc Kane if interested. A Smile for Kids – Christian Moller-Anderson – provides equitable access to orthodontic services for under-served youths throughout Oregon. We have funded braces for 38 Klamath County kids so far and currently have seven kids active in braces. For more information through www.asmileforkids.org 2nd Annual Community Baby Shower is pivoting to a drive-thru model and will be hosted at Sky Lakes’ campus on Washburn Way & Crosby on October 24th 11-1pm. See attached map for details or contact Danielle Walker at Danielle.Walker@douglasesd.k12.or.us More Community Events are shown on the attached Upcoming Events slide, you can contact info@healthyklamath.org with any questions.
Next Meeting: January 28, 2020	